

Cory and Jennifer Ellison provide training and encouragement to local pastors in Mongolia.

Susie Veon mentors leaders, does conference planning and organization for Intervarsity's many training and Bible study programs in the region.

Gene and Marilyn Smith provide church services and spiritual support to armed forces recruits.

Bruce Beckhart trains, coaches and encourages missionaries in middle Eastern countries.

MISSIONARIES

Ken Ramey travels cross country helping church attenders become better at sharing their faith with family and friends.

Nicky Pena teaches bible courses and trains Mexican nationals as pastors.

Ken and Dawn Bishop spent twenty years establishing a church and school in Eastern Europe and are beginning again in a new country.

Spencer Whelan runs a Young Life group for young adults with special needs in Southern California.

Gamal and Mony Hanna pastor and oversee over a dozen churches in Egypt, run a widespread gospel radio ministry, minister to the poor, and provide career development for young women.

Sophie Wysocki is a principal of a school in Cambodia designed to keep families from trafficking their kids by giving them an education.

