

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

—Hebrews 1:3 (NIV)

Read Hebrews 1. (You may choose to read the entire chapter everyday this week, or break it up in smaller parts and read it once over the course of the week.)

As we begin this new study of the Epistle to the Hebrews, I encourage you to prepare your heart for what God has in store for you individually and for us as a community. The letter to the Hebrews is packed full of rich theology, but I don't want that to scare you off. All theology is practical and has practical ramifications on our day to day lives. What you believe about God, what you believe about Jesus, will affect the way you live and how you interact with God.

As you look at this first chapter, take to heart what the author is saying about the person and work of Christ. Jesus is the exalted one, the radiance of God, the purifier of sins, the creator, the sustainer of life. Read it more as a sermon than a personal letter. Watch how the author weaves together old and new ways God has spoken to us and how Jesus has been a part of it all. He is not merely one of God's sons, He is the Son.

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven.

—Hebrews 1:3 (NIV)

Read Hebrews 1. (You may choose to read the entire chapter everyday this week, or break it up in smaller parts and read it once over the course of the week.)

As we begin this new study of the Epistle to the Hebrews, I encourage you to prepare your heart for what God has in store for you individually and for us as a community. The letter to the Hebrews is packed full of rich theology, but I don't want that to scare you off. All theology is practical and has practical ramifications on our day to day lives. What you believe about God, what you believe about Jesus, will affect the way you live and how you interact with God.

As you look at this first chapter, take to heart what the author is saying about the person and work of Christ. Jesus is the exalted one, the radiance of God, the purifier of sins, the creator, the sustainer of life. Read it more as a sermon than a personal letter. Watch how the author weaves together old and new ways God has spoken to us and how Jesus has been a part of it all. He is not merely one of God's sons, He is the Son.

Week 1

Questions for the Week

1. List several distinctions that the author gives to Jesus?
2. What is the over-arching point in this first chapter?
3. How does this truth about who Jesus is affect your day to day life?

Around the Table

Around the dinner table this week, with family or friends, discuss the person and work of Jesus Christ as depicted by the author of Hebrews in this first chapter. Did this explanation show you a new truth of Jesus? Why would the author need to stress these points?

Memory Verse of the Week

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe.

—Hebrews 1:1–2 (NIV)

Week 1

Questions for the Week

1. List several distinctions that the author gives to Jesus?
2. What is the over-arching point in this first chapter?
3. How does this truth about who Jesus is affect your day to day life?

Around the Table

Around the dinner table this week, with family or friends, discuss the person and work of Jesus Christ as depicted by the author of Hebrews in this first chapter. Did this explanation show you a new truth of Jesus? Why would the author need to stress these points?

Memory Verse of the Week

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom also he made the universe.

—Hebrews 1:1–2 (NIV)

)